

Dear God, thank you for this home.

I am grateful for this space and intend to live in harmony and high vibration, loving and caring for this space and the inhabitants within.

Dear God, angels, and Universe, please clear the energy of this home and fill it with your eternal love and kindness. As well, fill it with the love and gratitude of my own heart.

Please guide those energies whose time has passed to move beyond these walls. Guide those energies who linger to a better place filled with love and light.

In addition, for any being who has an energy attachment here they have yet to resolve- please allow peace to fill their hearts. Please allow your love to ease their conflicts or suffering. May all discomfort and pain be healed and their energy dissolve from this dwelling.

I ask with love that my home be cleared vibrationally, for the highest good of all energy involved.
